Amendment No. 1

1859

This is a draft version of the House Journal and is to be considered UNOFFICIAL. It will become the official record of the House after it has been adopted by the House.

AMEND House Bill No. 509 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-1-406, is amended by adding the following language as a new subdivision (d)(3) and by redesignating the existing subdivision (d)(3) and the remaining subdivisions accordingly:

(3) The nature and extent of any previous allegations, complaints, or petitions of abuse or dependency and neglect against the parent or person responsible for the care of the child;

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-1-406(e), is amended by deleting the first sentence and substituting instead the following:

The investigation shall include a visit to the child's home, an interview with and the physical observation of the child, an interview with and the physical observation of any other children in the child's home, and an interview with the parent or parents or other custodian of the child and any other persons in the child's home.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-2-403, is amended by adding the following as a new, appropriately designated subsection:

() Within twelve (12) months of a child entering state custody, the department shall review the child's case to determine, in the department's discretion, if reunification with family is feasible, and if not, whether to pursue termination of parental rights.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 37-1-102(b)(27), is amended by adding the following as a new, appropriately designated subdivision:

() Knowingly or grossly negligently allowing a child under eight (8) years of age to ingest an illegal substance or a controlled substance that results in the child testing positive on a drug screen, except as legally prescribed to the child.

Senate Amendment No. 1

AMEND House Bill No. 108 by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 50-1-502, is amended by adding the following language as new, appropriately designated subdivisions:

() "Employee" means an employee of any county, metropolitan government, municipality, or other political subdivision of this state;

() "Harassment" means two (2) or more instances of contact serving no legitimate purpose directed at an employee, in connection with that person's status as an employee, that a reasonable person would consider alarming, threatening, intimidating, abusive, or emotionally distressing and that does or reasonably could interfere with the performance of the employee's duties;

() "Instance of contact" means a direct communication or physical touching;

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 50, Chapter 1, Part 5, is amended by adding the following language as a new section:

A county, municipal, or metropolitan government may, through its attorney, seek an injunction against a person who commits harassment against an employee. The injunction may be sought in any court of competent jurisdiction having the power to grant injunctions. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize any cause of action unrelated to a person's status as an employee.

SECTION 3. The act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

SECTION _____. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 2, Chapter 11, Part 1, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

The general assembly, by joint resolution, may remove a member of the state election commission for cause and may remove a member who becomes unqualified.

Senate Amendment No. 9

AMEND House Bill No. 1079 by deleting the introductory language of § 2-2-142(a) in Section 1 and substituting instead the following:

(a) A person or organization who has not been designated by the county election commission under § 2-2-111 and who conducts a supplemental voter registration drive in which the person or organization attempts to collect voter registration applications of one hundred (100) or more people must comply with the following conditions:

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting § 2-2-142(e) in Section 1 and substituting instead the following:

(e) The coordinator of elections may adopt policies or procedures to effectuate the provisions of this section, including, but not limited to, a form on which the required information may be provided and certified by interested parties. The form adopted by the coordinator of elections may be provided electronically. The coordinator of elections shall, at a minimum, offer the training online and shall not charge a fee for the training.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting § 2-2-142(g) in Section 1 and substituting instead the following:

(g) This section does not apply to individuals who are not paid to collect voter registration applications or to organizations that are not paid to collect voter registration applications and that use only unpaid volunteers to collect voter registration applications.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting § 2-2-143(b) in Section 2 and substituting instead the following:

(b) For purposes of this section, "incomplete voter registration application" means any application that lacks the applicant's name, residential address, date of birth, declaration of eligibility, or signature. A person or organization who collects an application that only contains a name or initial is not required to file the application with the election commission.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting § 2-2-143(e) in Section 2 and substituting instead the following:

(e) This section does not apply to individuals who are not paid to collect voter registration applications or to organizations that are not paid to collect voter registration applications and that use only unpaid volunteers to collect voter registration applications.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting Sections 4 and 6 and renumbering the remaining sections accordingly.
